TIME PERIODS FOR FILING A REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

1. Applicant is given no new time period if the non-compliant amendment is an after-final amendment or an amendment filed after allowance. If applicant wishes to resubmit the non-compliant after-final amendment with corrections, the entire corrected amendment must be resubmitted.
2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. Continuation of 4(e) Other: The claim amendments submitted on 12/20/07 are not proper. They do not appear to be based on the last set of claims but instead on claims as originally filed. For instance, the last set of claims filed on 04/10/07 cancelled the first limitation from claim 1, incorporating it into the limitation beginning "receiving the parseable object emitted from the prior command". Further, the last set of claims on 04/10/07 stated that the parseable object included at least one method. The claims submitted on 12/20/07 now incorporate subject matter that was previously cancelled and eliminate subject matter that was previously added and appear to be drawn to the wrong set of claims. If this is the intent, then the claims have not been marked up appropriately. The claims have been amended according to the originally filed set of claims and not the last set of amended claims (dated 04/10/07). Thus the markups and changes are not accurate. Applicant is requested to file the amendments with proper markups based on the last claim set, not the original claim set. Applicant is also requested to clearly indicate cancelled matter and newly added subject matter.
